INTERNATIONAL DAY, 2011

I came to International Day on Monday May 20, 2011. It was a beautiful day. I liked the dances from Iraq and Russia. The girl from Russia looked like she was having a lot of fun when she was dancing. I felt like I wanted to join her in the dance. The dance from Iraq was beautiful too. Many other people liked this, too. I have heard good comments. It was really nice to see all the cultures together like one family. We were sharing the food and talking about how good it was. I tried different kinds of foods. All of the foods were very tasty. I liked the "Cabac" from Syria.
